

Gingersnaps.
One cup molasses, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup shortening, 1 heaping teaspoonful of soda, in half a cup of cold water; add flour enough to make soft dough, roll thin, cut, and bake in quick oven. The best results follow the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. For the cure of scrofula and scrofulous humors, this medicine has no equal. It has, in thousands of cases restored health to others, and will restore health to you.

A Suggestion.

The modern magazine may be taken as embodying the best literature of the world, as the magazine editor puts the highest prices to novelists, scientists, statesmen, soldiers, and even kings and princes, for the best they can furnish in the literary line. The well-edited magazine becomes an educating influence in the family circle, whose importance cannot be over-estimated. The children, as they grow up, are attracted by its illustrations, and so come in time to have a taste for reading. There is always something that is new, something that is strange, something that is interesting; and we consider that we are doing our reader a positive benefit if we are instrumental in placing such a publication within their reach. The special arrangement which we have made with the Cosmopolitan presents very unusual inducements. That magazine is already recognized as one of the most interesting publications of the day. It is seeking subscribers everywhere and obtaining them. The proprietors believe that the Cosmopolitan has only to be examined to secure a permanent subscriber. That is why we are enabled to make, if the offer is accepted before January next, such a very low rate, by which our readers can obtain the Cosmopolitan for little more than the cost of this journal alone. Just think of what the combination means! You obtain your own home journal at about the regular price, and have thrown in a magazine which gives you, in a year, 1,536 pages of reading matter by the ablest writers of the world, including over 1,300 pages of illustrations that are unsurpassed in point of interest and execution. Will it not pay you to send a subscription to this office for the PERRYBURG JOURNAL and the Cosmopolitan immediately? Remember, only $2.50 for the two.

Peterson's

20TH YEAR is inscribed on the dainty cover of the January PETERSON. This periodical has stood the test of half a century and still ranks foremost among the magazines for ladies and the household generally. It has been enlarged, and exhibits many improvements and fresh attractions. Besides the beautiful full-page engravings, there are several illustrated articles, poems and stories. "Oddities in Foot Gear," by Harriet Latham, is exceptionally good, with numerous explanatory designs ranking from Egyptian sandals to Greenland skin shoes. Miss M. G. McClelland and Mrs. Lucy H. Hopper begin serials which promise brilliantly. Minna Irving has a fine lyric, Clarence M. Boutelle, Frank Lee Benedict and other well-known writers, contribute some of the best stories to be found in the month's round of magazines. The excellence of the fashion, needle work and household departments has always made PETERSON an infallible authority. It is now, in its new dress, a very handsome magazine and will more than ten times save the subscription money to every family that takes it. Price $2.00 a year, with large reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums, to those who get up clubs. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, Philadelphia.

"Go snowshoeing?" Yes, my dear madame, why not?—provided the heavens be propitious and furnish the snow, and there is every prospect of plenty this winter. Snowshoeing is as easy as sliding down hill,—after you know how, and you will know how, and how to form a club, and what to wear, and all about it, after reading the breezy article on "Snowshoeing" in DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE for January; and if you don't become enthusiastic about the subject, we are mistaken. Or if your tastes are artistic rather than athletic, you will be delighted with the excellent paper on "Modeling for Sculpture," with its numerous and beautiful illustrations, including a superb full-page portrait of the eminent American sculptor Hartley; and if you have never modeled in clay, the suggestions for amateurs and beginners will be of great assistance. "Sage Maidens of Cornell University" is another handsomely illustrated article, written by one of them, telling of some of the trials and many of the pleasures of the life of a "sage" at that noted seat of learning; the illustrated Chinese story is particularly interesting; the other stories are all good; the "Santarian" has reasonable articles about the "Effects of Cold," and how to take sitz, foot, and other baths, for remedial purposes; "Clad" and "The World's Progress" are especially attractive; and all the other departments are bristling with good things. Indeed, for beauty, variety, and completeness, DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE must be awarded the palm of superiority as the Family Magazine, and should be in every household. Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East Fifth Street, New York.
